

Nameless, TN

- abandonment, 45-60
  - as a mental state of being, 45-55
  - as cause of overdose of a parent, 58-60
  - what fathers do, 56-57
- addiction, 1-12
  - as a substitute for love, 6-12
  - as an excuse for abandonment, 1-6
- abuse, 12-27
  - as an expected part of life, 20-27
  - in childhood, 12-15
  - sexual, fear of, 15-20
- accident, 28-40
  - as cause of mother loss, 28-32
  - how someone can describe a marriage, 34-40
  - the reason for a child's existence, 32-34
- blowjobs, 90-100
  - as aggravated circumstance, 90-92
  - as injury to the soul, 92-97
  - legal issues, 100
  - short-term professional service, 97-99
- Child Protective Services, 40-45
  - as consequence, 44
  - definition of, 40
  - who father calls "those people," 45
  - worker characteristics and competencies, 41-43
- coping, 70-80
  - and later relationships, 77-80
  - and loss of parent, 70-73
  - strategies and skills, 73-77
- desertion, 50-60, 102
  - and unresolved grief, 55-58
  - author's account of mother's, 50-55
  - by another man, 102
  - children's understandings of, 58-60
- eating disorders, 60-62
  - as a coping device, 60-61
  - as a way to assert control, 61-62
  - as cliché, 62
- family, 63-70
  - as defined by DNA, 67-70
  - imagined definition of, 63
  - interventions with, 64-65
  - risk assessment and, 66
  - See also*, Tennessee
- an imperfect body, scars on, 18
- heart disease, 110-120
  - and preparation for death, 115-118
  - and resentment, 110-115
  - and unresolved grief, 118-120
- hope, 100-102
  - as given by a man once, 100
  - and rescue compulsion, 101
  - deterioration of, 102
  - See also* desertion
- investigation, 31-32
  - as an empty promise, 31
  - neglected protocols, 32
- Housekeeping*, 102-109, 140
  - a book to be buried with, 140
  - as metaphor, 108-109
  - because family is a social construction, 102-107
- memory, 120-130
  - and "if only" syndrome, 124-129
  - different sibling experiences, 120-124
  - pleasure in loss of, 129-130
- silence, 130-140
  - and solitary death, 137-139
  - as peace, 133-136
  - in empty house, 130-133
  - welcome, 140
- Tennessee, 81-89
  - a place to start over, 83-85
  - a place without family, 82
  - place to be buried, 86-89
  - state in the USA, 81